Minimum Subscription	$5,000,000
Investment Term	5 years and within 20 days from the Issue Date
Redemption Prior to Maturity	Investors can apply to redeem Units prior to Maturity. However, the Manager’s ability to redeem Units will be dependent on Deutsche Bank AG facilitating a buy-back of the Notes as discussed below. The Manager will redeem Units and pay redemption proceeds to a redeeming Investor within 10 business days of the receiving the buy-back proceeds from Deutsche Bank AG.
Minimum Redemption Amount	$5,000
Documentation	Investors must have read Parts 1 of the PDS issued 31 March 2011 and Part 2 of the PDS issued on 18 July 2011 for details in relation to their investment in this Investment Class in the Fund. The PDS is available from the Manager’s website at www.LMaustralia.com .
Investment During the Term	The Manager may accept new and additional investments after the closing date, on a case by case basis. The Manager also has the right to reject an offer for investment after the closing date. If a new investment is accepted the price paid for the investment will be the issue price on the date of investment. The maturity date will be the maturity date noted on this page. Terms and conditions will be the same as noted in Parts 1 and 2 of the PDS.

¹ The Key Dates are indicative only. The Manager may, in its discretion, extend or shorten the offer period without prior notice. If this happens, the Issue Date and/or Payment Date and Maturity Date may vary accordingly. If the Manager extends or shortens the offer period it may post a notice on the website informing Applicants of the changes at: www.LMaustralia.com/Investment-Products/LM-Australian-Structured-Products-Fund/Open-Series/LMASPF1-ASX200.aspx.

Key Features of the Notes

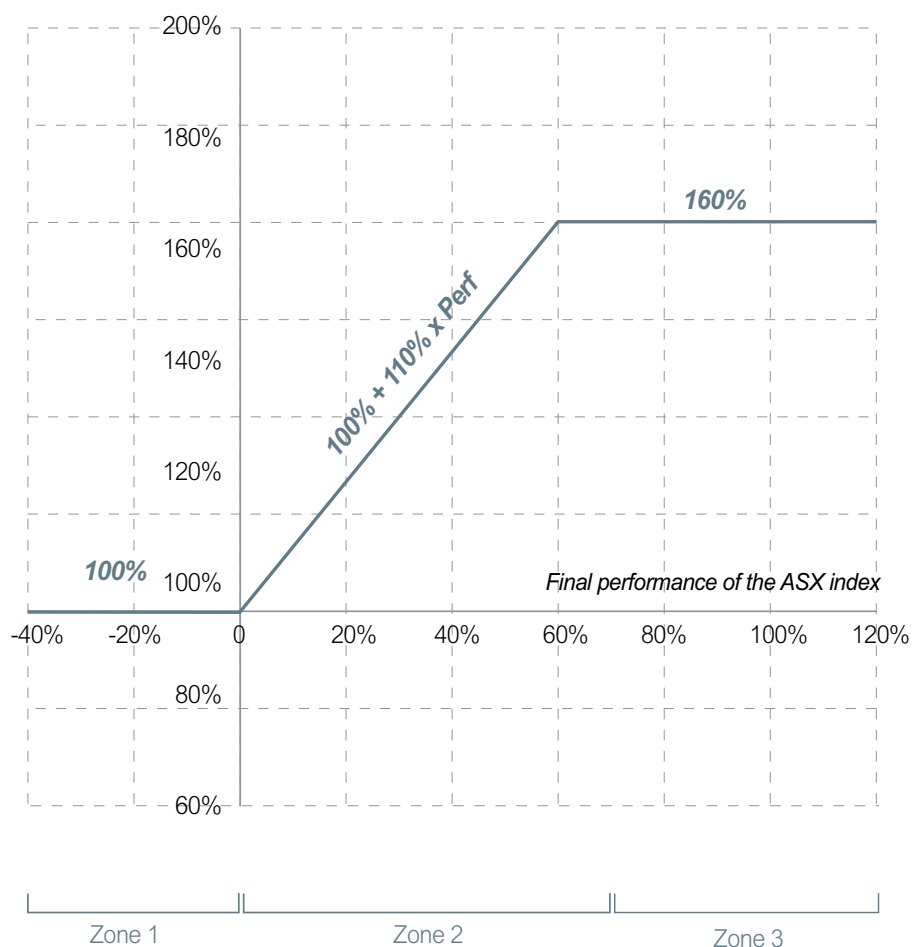

Issuer of the Notes	Deutsche Bank AG, London branch. A branch of Deutsche Bank Aktiengesellschaft (Deutsche Bank AG).
Description of Notes	The Fund will invest in 5 year capped performance notes issued by Deutsche Bank AG, London branch a branch of Deutsche Bank Aktiengesellschaft (Deutsche Bank AG). The Notes are a principal obligation of Deutsche Bank AG. Under the terms of the Notes Deutsche Bank AG undertakes to repay the nominal amount of each Note (specified in the term sheet of the investment as AUD1,000) at maturity (currently specified as 5 years from issue). In addition, Deutsche Bank AG undertakes to pay at maturity a Coupon Amount as set out in the term sheet of the investment which is set out on page 5 of this Part 2 of this PDS. The Notes are unsecured and subject to Deutsche Bank AG's ability to perform.
100% Capital Return at Maturity	Deutsche Bank AG undertakes to return 100% of investment capital if the Notes are held until maturity. This capital repayment obligation applies to the Fund's investment in the Notes. The redemption proceeds payable to Investors upon a redemption of Units at the end of the investment term will be equal to the proceeds received from Deutsche Bank AG upon maturity of the Notes less Management Costs, currently estimated as 0.25%pa. At maturity, if the performance of the ASX index is negative and the Fund only receives 100% of investment capital, the amount Investors receive at maturity will be their initial capital investment less the Management Costs.
Investment Term	5 years
Minimum Investment	$1,000
Secondary Market	Saleable in the secondary market prior to maturity. Generally, under normal market conditions, the Fund can redeem the Notes prior to the maturity date however the 100% return of the Fund's investment capital will not apply and redemption will be subject to Deutsche Bank AG being able to facilitate buy-back of the Notes at the time requested. The Manager does not have control over whether Deutsche Bank AG will allow buy-back prior to maturity, it is totally at the issuer's discretion. The minimum value of the requested redemption by the Fund is $5,000.
Currency of Notes	Australian dollars
Asset Class	Structured product indexed (or linked) to the S&P/ASX 200 Index (Code: XJO) referred to as 'ASX Index'.
Leverage	The Notes will provide investment exposure of 110% on the upside with a maximum redemption objective of 160% of the capital initially invested. ² The Fund will not have any direct borrowings in connection with this Investment Class.

² 100% return of the Fund's investment capital requires investment until maturity and presumes Deutsche Bank AG's ability and commitment to pay.

Description of Investment Class - LMASPF1 ASX 200

At maturity, whatever the performance of the ASX Index, the Fund should receive 100% of the capital initially invested in the Notes. In addition to the capital initially invested, the Fund will receive 110% of the positive final performance of the index with a maximum of 60% increase in the initial investment value.

- > If the performance of the ASX index is negative, the Fund receives 100% of the capital invested (see zone 1 in illustration below);
- > Otherwise, if the final performance of the ASX index is positive though under a 54.54% increase, the Fund will receive 100% of the capital initially invested +110% of the final performance of the index (see zone 2 in illustration below);
- > Otherwise, if the final performance of the ASX index is an increase of 54.54% or above, the Fund will receive 100% of the capital initially invested + 60% increase in the initial investment value (see zone 3 in the illustration below).

The graph above does not have regard for redemption prior to maturity nor does it take into account the impact of any fees on the investment. The graph is not intended to depict any expected rise in the ASX index. The graph is for illustration of possible returns that could be made so that example data can be assessed in context. The 100% return of capital component depends on the ability of Deutsche Bank AG to pay the 100% capital return on investment maturity.

The table below provides an overview of the terms and conditions of the Notes in which this Investment Class will invest.

Adjustment Provisions	As the Notes are linked to the S&P/ASX 200 Index, there may be times that Deutsche Bank AG is required to make adjustments to the Notes, for example if the S&P/ASX 200 Index no longer existed Deutsche Bank AG would need to adjust the Notes to reflect the relevant replacement index. Deutsche Bank AG has the right to make any necessary adjustments as and when required during the term of the investment in line with provisions as set out in the underlying base prospectus for this investment by the Fund.
Market Disruption Event	Deutsche Bank AG will be responsible for dealing with the Notes which are linked to the S&P/ASX 200 Index during the term of the investment. As the Notes are reliant on Deutsche Bank AG's ability to trade and value the Notes on the relevant exchange/s, events could occur in the market that disrupt the trading/valuation of the Notes. These are referred to as Market Disruption Events and are out of the control of Deutsche Bank AG and could impact on Deutsche Bank AG's ability to transact the necessary dealings or valuations. In the event that a Market Disruption Event occurs Deutsche Bank AG will deal with the event as outlined in the underlying base prospectus for this investment by the Fund. If Market Disruption Event/s occur it could impact on the any return and/or a delay in meeting any investor's withdrawal payment at the end of the investment term could occur. Investors can request a copy of the underlying base prospectus from the Manager's regional offices or head office on +617 5584 4500.
